

A day in
A day out
It's a sin
To go without

Life without love
A curse to be had
No white doves
Was it that bad?

Every day is always the same
Awake in the morning
Taking the blame
Didn't heed the warning

It's always the same
Argue and fight
Just another game
Doesn't make it right

Adult or a child
Our actions speak loud
All the anger is piled
Why yell so loud?

Does it make things better
Or more clear
I believe it's neither
You're standing right here

Take a break
And walk away
Settle the wake
Let love live another day
