

Just a matter of time
And all things will pass
It's not a crime
To look through the glass

Focus your vision
On what you can't see
Use all your wisdom
To set yourself free

The vision it swirls
Inside your crystal ball
The mirage uncurls
Can you see it all?

Your future is there
Right before your eyes
But you can't see where
Behind that disguise

The image gets clearer
Then you realize
As it comes nearer
You can't believe your eyes

It's so amazing
You're lost for words to say
You're just remembering
That's what happened yesterday!
