

You know you want it
You know you need it
You know that feeling
Deep inside of you
The one that
Only I can do

Sweat pours off your body
Like water from the falls
The sound of water crashing
As I give you my all

The sweet sound of silence
You got what you wanted
The thrill of the chase
Soon to be departed.

Just one more time, you say,
We have time kill
Let's ride that river again
The subject of my will.
