

You came over
Just for the night
My four leaf clover
But It didn't seem right

Watched and we played
Mingled about
The bed stayed made
This there's no doubt

Sat and watched TV
You couldn't see
You left kind of early
Thinking it was me

A strange feeling
That happened tonight
It left me reeling
Things just weren't right

Maybe it's me
Thinking too much
Just wanted to heed
your loving touch
